

Clarissa is a Legal Associate in the Family and Divorce Practice Group.

Her practice includes acting for clients in divorce matters (both contested and uncontested) and related ancillary issues, relocation applications, maintenance applications, mediations, adoption applications, drafting of wills, and applications for personal protection orders. Clarissa has also assisted lead counsel on numerous highly contentious cases relating to the custody and care & control of minor children, and cases involving complex cross-jurisdictional family issues.

She graduated with a Bachelor of Laws (Cum Laude) from Singapore Management University in 2020 and was admitted as an Advocate and Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore in 2021.
