

Sharmini is a Partner in our Litigation and Dispute Management Team.

She handles a broad range of work in commercial litigation and international arbitration involving joint venture and shareholder disputes, breach of directors' fiduciary duties, civil fraud, contractual disputes, contentious probate, judicial review and international law.

Sharmini also engages in advisory work, and assists corporations with representations to administrative and regulatory bodies in Singapore on a wide range of issues.

Sharmini's current matters include an SIAC arbitration on the breach of an agreement for the sale and purchase of a majority stake in a foreign entity's shares; the enforcement of international arbitral awards; and a High Court litigation concerning alleged breach of warranties in a sale and purchase agreement.

Sharmini obtained her Masters in Law from the University of Pennsylvania Law School and has a Business & Law Certificate from the Wharton Business School.

She was called to the Singapore Bar in 2005 and admitted to the New York Bar in 2011.
