

Valerie is an Of Counsel in our Corporate and Financial Services Practice Group. Her main practice areas include investment funds, mergers and acquisitions, private equity, capital markets, joint ventures and general corporate advisory work.

Her recent experience includes:

- Advised in the establishment of an investment fund with a fund size of S$50 million representing a leading investment bank and a publicly traded energy company listed on NASDAQ
- Advised in various cross-border mergers and acquisitions involving real estate, medical, solar energy, oil & gas, shipping, lifestyle and hospitality, technology and insurance businesses representing SGX listed companies and private companies
- Advised in a cross-border financing transaction representing a fund in the energy industry for a loan facility of approximately US$170 million
- Advised various fund managers and investors in the structuring and establishment of various investment funds including limited partnerships, variable capital companies, trusts and offshore fund vehicles with fund size of up to approximately S$145 million
- Advised in MAS licencing applications for fund managers

- Advised in various establishments of family trust and the Singapore master trust structures representing Singapore listed companies
- Advised in the set up of single family offices and obtaining regulatory exemptions for fund managers
- Advised a major construction company on the share placement and IPO on the SGX
- Advised a SGX listed company on the reverse takeover by an Indonesian agriculture group
- Advised a foreign regulatory authority in conducting a comparative review of its company law legislation with Singapore's Companies Act

Valerie graduated from the Singapore Management University in 2014 with a LLB and was admitted as an Advocate and Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore in 2015

VALERIE BOH

Of Counsel

T +65 6361 9324

F +65 6438 0550

E ValerieBoh@harryelias.com