

William is a Senior Associate in our Litigation and Dispute Management Practice Group. He handles a broad range of legal matters, specialising in civil and commercial disputes.

His recent experience includes acting for an aggrieved shareholder in applying to the High Court to rectify the share register of a company, successfully representing a high net worth individual in negotiating a comprehensive divorce settlement, as well as appearing in the Court of Appeal in a case involving breach of directors' duties.

Aside from contentious matters, William also has experience with general corporate advisory work, real estate transactions, employment law and wills and probate. He is also a co-author of the chapter 'Variation of Maintenance' in 'Law and Practice of Family Law in Singapore', a 2016 publication by Sweet & Maxwell.

William graduated from the National University of Singapore in 2015 with an LLB (Hons) and was admitted as an Advocate & Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore in 2016.
