Biography

Eugene regularly advises individuals and companies in civil and commercial disputes, including criminal defence, shareholder conflicts and construction litigation. Eugene adopts a results driven approach and handles complex matters with clarity, precision and strategic insight.

In civil and commercial litigation, Eugene has successfully represented clients in claims involving fraudulent misrepresentation, conspiracy and harassment. Eugene has also acted for clients in interlocutory applications, including injunctions and production of documents, securing positive outcomes for clients.

Eugene's criminal defence work spans both white-collar crimes such as corruption and securities offences and general criminal matters, such as drug related and traffic offences. Eugene is also prosecuting counsel for the Energy Market Authority.

Outside of work, Eugene volunteers on the rules and disciplinary committees of a local club and he is also a certified personal trainer.

Experience

- Cross Border Investment Dispute: Acted for directors in a dispute relating to an investment vehicle incorporated in a foreign jurisdiction. Successfully obtained interlocutory orders compelling the production of documents, particulars and resisted the bifurcation of a trial via a Single Application Pending Trial.
- Injunction: Acted for majority shareholders in successfully resisting an injunction aimed at preventing the convening of an extraordinary general meeting to pass resolutions.
- Mareva Injunction: Successfully acted for the applicant in setting aside a Mareva Injunction (a freezing order of assets), securing the release of assets.
- Defamation / Harassment: Acted for an applicant who was the subject of Facebook posts that had been widely circulated online. Successfully compelled the removal of the Facebook posts and obtained an order for damages.
- Misrepresentation / Conspiracy: Acted for investors in a 12-day trial involving misrepresentation and conspiracy claims and successfully obtained an award for damages and costs
