

Eugene Tai

Senior Associate

Corporate and Financial Services Regulation

Biography

Eugene is a Singapore-qualified corporate lawyer with a focus on equity capital markets, mergers and acquisitions, and listing compliance. He advises SGX-listed companies on a range of corporate exercises, including fundraisings, acquisitions, disposals, restructurings, and other matters requiring shareholder or regulatory approval.

He has experience advising on disclosure obligations and continuing compliance under the SGX Listing Rules, including the review and preparation of market announcements, shareholder communications, and related documentation for corporate actions. He also assists with listing rule queries, potential breaches, and compliance assessments, working alongside sponsors, financial advisers, and other stakeholders.

Alongside his equity capital markets and M&A practice, Eugene assists clients with general corporate and commercial matters. His experience includes drafting and reviewing joint venture agreements, shareholder agreements, service and supply contracts, franchising arrangements, and non-disclosure agreements.
