

Laura Eng
Associate

Family and Divorce

Biography

Laura is an Associate in the Family and Divorce Practice Group. She advises clients on both contentious and non-contentious family law matters, including divorce and ancillary matters, prenuptial agreements, Personal Protection Orders (PPOs), maintenance enforcement, CPF issues, and guardianship applications.

Laura believes divorce should mark the end of conflict and the start of a new chapter. Guided by the principles of therapeutic justice, she focuses on minimising conflict and achieving practical outcomes centred on children's welfare. At the same time, she is adept at handling contested matters where litigation cannot be avoided, ensuring her clients' rights and interests are safeguarded at every stage.

Fluent in English, Mandarin, and Cantonese, she is adept at working with clients from diverse backgrounds. Passionate about giving back, Laura has been actively involved in volunteering work since her student days.

Experience

- Advised clients in both contested and uncontested divorce proceedings involving children's issues, property division, and spousal and child maintenance, with an aim to achieve fair outcomes while minimising financial and emotional strain.
- Supported clients in Personal Protection Order (PPO) and maintenance (MSS) proceedings, ensuring clients' concerns were effectively addressed and desired outcomes achieved.
- Advised on variation applications concerning care and control, access, and maintenance, and recommended practical adjustments to existing orders.
- Handled cases involving jurisdictional disputes and foreign assets, including application for stay of proceedings.
