

Urmi Nag

Associate

Family and Divorce

Biography

With two years of experience as a matrimonial lawyer, Urmi assists clients in navigating complex family law matters. Urmi specialises in high-net-worth contentious litigation, and she regularly deals with cases at both the Family Court and Family Division of the High Court, handling matrimonial matters from divorce to child related issues.

As part of a team that regularly handles cross-border matters, Urmi is gaining valuable experience in managing the complexities of multi-jurisdictional family law issues. She is developing expertise in navigating cases that involve multiple legal systems, ensuring her clients' interests are carefully considered across borders.

In addition to her litigation experience, Urmi has a background in mediation and negotiation, working to resolve disputes amicably and effectively when possible. She is dedicated to providing her clients with practical legal solutions while ensuring their rights are protected and long-term outcomes are carefully considered.
