

Biography

Aziemah is a Senior Associate in the firm's Corporate and Commercial Practice Group. She graduated with an LLB (Hons) from the University of Sussex in the United Kingdom in 2016 and was called to the Bar of England and Wales in 2017 at Lincoln's Inn after completing the Bar Professional Training Course at London City Law School.

Aziemah began her Pupillage with Messrs. Rudi Lee, Annie Kon and Associates in 2018 and was admitted to the Supreme Court of Brunei Darussalam in 2019. During her seven-year tenure at the firm, she developed a strong specialisation in litigation matters, focusing on areas such as construction disputes arising from private development projects, commercial contract disputes, personal injuries, insurance claims, and corporate and personal insolvency.

Over the years, Aziemah has gained extensive experience in settlement negotiations, taxation matters, and interlocutory applications, including successfully obtaining and resisting default judgments, summary judgments, and Order 21 applications (including reinstatement claims). She has also appeared as lead counsel in trials before the Intermediate Court, High Court, and Court of Appeal, representing clients in complex legal matters before visiting judges.

Aziemah joined HEP Law to expand her practice into corporate and commercial law, building on her litigation background to broaden her expertise in these areas.

Aziemah Shahrum, qualified in Brunei Darussalam to practice Brunei Law, not registered as a foreign lawyer practising in Singapore, not regulated by the Law Society of Singapore and not a member of the firm.
