

Elizabeth Lee

Associate

Family and Divorce

Biography

Elizabeth specialises in Family and Matrimonial law, and has experience handling both contested and uncontested matters. Her experience in contested matters includes relocation applications, custody and care and control disputes, maintenance applications, jurisdictional challenges in divorce proceedings, and matters involving family violence. She also has experience advising clients on uncontested matters such as prenuptial agreements and simplified divorce proceedings.

Elizabeth believes in the importance of approaching matters with care and sensitivity. She strives to navigate matters in a way that minimises both the financial costs and emotional strain for her clients, while working towards practical outcomes that are in her client's best interests.
