Family and Divorce

Biography

Arika specialises in Family and Matrimonial Law and has represented clients across a broad spectrum of contentious and non-contentious matrimonial matters.

Her experience spans all aspects of family and divorce proceedings, including pre-divorce advisory work, contested divorces, child-related matters, maintenance issues, variation applications, and personal protection orders.

Deeply attuned to the profound personal impact of family disputes, Arika adopts a client-focused approach grounded in the principles of therapeutic justice. She is committed to guiding clients with empathy, clarity, and practical advice, ensuring they feel supported at every stage of the legal process. Where appropriate, she strives to achieve amicable and sustainable resolutions that minimise emotional and financial strain while safeguarding her clients' long-term interests.

Analytical and articulate, Arika combines strategic insight with compassionate advocacy, making her a trusted advisor to individuals navigating complex family transitions.

Experience:

- Represented a Father in two variation proceedings, successfully securing enhanced access arrangements and subsequently obtaining sole care and control of his daughter.
- Represented a Mother in resisting the Father's application for the daughter's immediate return to Singapore, with the Court dismissing the Father's application.
- Represented a Father in an application to cease spousal maintenance payments, with the Court ruling in his favour.
