Family and Divorce

Biography

Andrea's practice encompasses both contentious and non-contentious family and matrimonial law matters. She advises and acts for clients in a wide range of proceedings, including divorce, ancillary matters, child custody and access disputes, relocation applications, cross-border family disputes, and guardianship applications.

Recognising that family disputes can be emotionally and financially taxing, Andrea adopts a compassionate, pragmatic, and solutions-oriented approach to her practice. She is dedicated to helping clients navigate complex legal issues with clarity and confidence. As a steadfast advocate for her clients' interests, she works closely with her clients to develop tailored legal strategies that reflect their individual needs, priorities, and long-term objectives.

Experience:

- Successfully represented the plaintiff wife in XIU v XIV[2025] SGHCF 28 in contested divorce proceedings before the Family Division of the High Court, securing inclusion of dissipated assets into the matrimonial pool, a majority share of assets, and spousal maintenance.
- Successfully obtained a personal protection order in a contentious family violence dispute.
- Successfully defended against an interim maintenance application and upheld the parties' prenuptial agreement.
- Acted in contested Guardianship of Infants Act proceedings, securing shared care and control arrangements in favour of the applicant.
- Represented the applicant in contested cross-border divorce proceedings involving a jurisdictional challenge of the Family Justice Courts.
- Advised the applicant in contested divorce proceedings involving a matrimonial pool in excess of S$700 million, assets spanning multiple jurisdictions and concerning third-party interests.
